Ex parte Quayle

1. In view of Applicant's arguments and discussion set forth in the Appeal Brief filed December 14, 2004, all pending rejections in this application have been withdrawn.

2. This application is in condition for allowance except for the following formal matters:

A Biological Deposit is required for claimed bacterial strain

(BP536pWY). To fulfill requirements made under the provisions of the Budapest Treaty, filing of an affidavit or declaration by applicant or assignees or a statement by an attorney of record who has authority and control over the conditions of deposit over his or her signature and registration number stating that the deposit has been accepted by the Depository Authority under the provisions of the Budapest Treaty and that all restrictions upon public access to the deposit will be irrevocably removed upon the grant of a patent on this application. These requirements are necessary when deposits are made under the provisions of the Budapest Treaty as the Treaty leaves this specific matter to the discretion of each State. As a possible means for completing the record, applicant may submit a copy of the contract with the depository for deposit and maintenance of each deposit.

Art Unit: 1645

3. The Drawings contains sequences that have not been identified by sequence identifiers (e.g. SEQ ID NOs.). See figures 7A-7C, in particular. Applicant is asked to review this application and correct these informalities. It must be remembered that the computer readable form (CRF) and the paper copy of the sequence listings must be modified to correspond to the sequence identifiers placed in the specification.

4. Prosecution on the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213. A shortened statutory period for reply to this action is set to expire TWO MONTHS from the mailing date of this letter.

Conclusion
